

NCFCWMC Member's Meeting

July 10, 2021

The North Central Fayette County Wildlife Management Co-Op met on Saturday, July 10, 2021 at 5:00PM for a social and meeting at the Ledbetter Community Center. Lana Limmer, Virgie Hall and Laurie Galland registered the guests and took care of official business as guests arrived. Approximately 75 attended.

President Luke Sternadel called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone. Minutes from the last meeting were read by Norman Schultz. Treasurer, Lana Limmer, gave the treasurer's report. A motion was made by Rodney Read to accept the minutes and the treasurer's report as read. Carlo Triolo seconded the motion. A "Thank You" was given to Norman Schultz for his many years serving as president of the Co-Op. Mr. Schultz will continue to serve as a director.

Luke introduced the guest speaker, Wildlife Biologist, Laura Sherrod. Laura serves Fayette and Lee County as their biologist. She spoke on managed lands, deer permits, wildlife tax evaluations and gave updates on wildlife and pond management tips. She answered questions from the members regarding pond management, wild turkeys, and grasses for wildlife. Members were asked to present their ideas for topics for the annual meeting. These ideas may be presented to any of the Co-Op directors.

Fried chicken(catered by Gary Goebel) and iced tea was provided by the Co-Op. Members brought side dishes and desserts. Everyone brought their own beer beverages. Door prizes were awarded throughout the evening. There was no auction or raffle at this meeting. Dues were collected for the year 2021. Members will be able to pay their 2022 dues at the meeting in October or mail them to NCFCWMC at P.O. Box 224, Round Top, Texas 78954.

Luke announced that the annual meeting will be held Saturday, Oct. 9, 2021 at Camp Kubena (formerly Cooper Farms). The meeting adjourned with the meal prayer given by Emil Sodalak.
