Spring NCFCWMC Meeting March 12. 2022

The spring meeting was called to order at 5:15 by Luke Sternadel. He notified the audience that two of the planned speakers; game warden Calvin Harbaugh and Scott Wiley were not in attendance due to prior commitments. Luke distributed the "Coyote Control Contest Report" and the "Feral Hog Report" provided by Scott.

Luke explained to the members that the association is looking for feedback and ideas for programs and information that could be addressed at the fall 2022 meeting (October 8). Food plots and pond management are ideas the co-op are considering but any suggestions from members are welcome.

Luke said that the feral hog problem and coyote reduction programs are addressed at the county commissioners court. A bounty is paid for killing either animal.

Rob Clift, the manager of Camp Kubena reported on the camp. He said it was fully booked for summer 2022. The camp wants to be a part of the community and has hired several local workers. The community is invited to "Cars and Guitars - Car Show and Music Festival" on April 2.

The treasurer's report was given by Lana. The co-op has a balance of 18,921.42.

Wildlife biologist, Laura Sherrod spoke on rules for harvesting and reporting game harvested, wildlife population and condition,youth brigades and wildlife exemption. She answered many questions from the members.

Lana welcomed the new members Colton Meinke, Chris and Debbie Hickey and Jeff and Laurie Frey to the co-op.

Michael and Tara Pietsch were nominated by Gary Weishuhn for the vacant directors positions. The nomination was seconded by Audrey Sternadel. The nomination passed.

Luke reminded the audience that the board is looking for suggestions for topics to be covered and/or presented at the fall meeting. Tell a director your idea.

A question on burn bans was asked. Look at the Fayette County Website to see the status.

The bucket and card raffle tickets were drawn.

Mike Pietsch said the meal prayer.

Meeting ended at 6:21.
